The following is an agreement between the author(s) listed above (the "Author") and the Editors of Canadian Social Studies ("CSS"), and governs the above-stated proposed article (the "Work").

Section 1: Author's Grant of Rights

In consideration of CSS's agreement to publish the Work in CSS, the Author hereby grants to CSS a licence on the following terms:

1.1 The irrevocable, royalty-free right to publish, reproduce, publicly display, publicly perform and distribute the Work in perpetuity throughout the world in all means of expression by any method or media now known or hereafter developed, including electronic format;

1.2 The irrevocable, royalty-free right to use the Author's name and likeness in association with the Work in published form and in advertising and promotional materials related to the Work; and

1.3 The irrevocable, royalty-free right to license others to do any or all of the above.

Section 2: Prior Publication & Publication by Others

2.1 The Author agrees not to publish the Work, or authorize any third party to publish the Work, either in print or electronically, prior to publication of the Work by CSS.

2.2 [Journal Name Abbreviation] requests that, should the Author publish or distribute the Work elsewhere at any time or in any alternate format, the Author cite the original version of the publication in [JOURNAL NAME Abbreviation] through a tagline, author bibliography, or similar means. A sample acknowledgement would be:

"Originally published in the Canadian Social Studies [Volume, Issue]: <https://canadiansocialstudies.ca>"

Section 3: Editing and Formatting

The Author authorizes CSS to edit the Work and to make such modifications as are technically necessary or desirable to exercise the rights in Section 1 in differing media and formats. CSS will make no material modification to the content of the Work without the Author's consent.

Section 4: Author's Ownership of Copyright and Reservation of Rights

4.1 Nothing in this agreement constitutes a transfer of the copyright by the Author, and the copyright in the Work is subject to the rights granted by this agreement.

4.2 The Author retains the following rights, including but not limited to, the right:

4.2.1 To reproduce and distribute the Work, and to authorize others to reproduce and distribute the Work, in any format;

4.2.2 To post a version of the Work in an institutional repository or the Author's personal or departmental web page so long as CSS is cited as the source of first publication of the Work (see sample acknowledgement above).

4.2.3 To include the Work, in whole or in part, in another work, subject to Section 2 above and provided that CSS is cited as the source of first publication of the Work (see sample acknowledgement above).

4.3 The Editors and Editorial Board of CSS strongly encourage authors to publish the Work under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International licence (CC BY 4.0) that allows others to distribute, remix, tweak, and build upon the Work, even commercially, as long as they credit the Author for the original creation. The Author may however choose to have their Work distributed under any of Creative Commons licences currently available (see <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/> for a description of each licence). I choose to make the Work available under the following Creative Commons Licence:

- Attribution (CC BY) <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0>
- Share Alike (CC BY SA) <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-sa/4.0>
- NonCommercial (CC BY NC) <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc/4.0>
- NoDerivatives (CC BY ND) <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nd/4.0>
- NonCommercial Share Alike (CC BY NC SA) <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-sa/4.0>
- NonCommercial NoDerivatives (CC BY NC ND) <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-nd/4.0>
- No Rights Reserved (CC0) <https://creativecommons.org/choose/zero/>

Section 5: Author’s Warranties and Undertakings

The Author warrants that:

5.1 The Author is the sole author of the Work, or all co-authors are identified in the Work as submitted for publication.

5.2 They hold the copyright in the Work and have the power to convey the rights granted in this agreement.

5.3 The Work has not previously been published, in whole or in part, except as follows:

5.4 Any textual, graphic or multimedia material included in the Work that is the property or work of another is either explicitly identified by source and cited in the Work or is otherwise identified as follows:

5.5 To the best of the Author’s knowledge, the Work does not contain matter that is obscene, libelous, defamatory; it does not violate another’s civil right, right of privacy, right of publicity, or other legal right; and it is otherwise not unlawful.

5.6 To the best of the Author’s knowledge, the Work does not infringe the copyright or other intellectual property or literary rights of another.

5.7 The Author will indemnify and hold CSS harmless against loss, damages, expenses, awards, and judgments arising from breach of any such warranties.

Section 6: Governing Law

This agreement is entered into in Alberta and shall be governed and construed in accordance with the substantive law of the Province of Alberta and applicable Canadian federal law.

Section 7: The Reuse of Third-Party Works

CSS requires that the Author determine, prior to publication, whether it is necessary to obtain permissions from any third party who holds rights with respect to any photographs, illustrations, drawings, text, or any other material (“third-party work”) to be published with or in connection with the Work. Copyright permission will not be necessary if the use is determined to be fair dealing, if the work is in the public domain, or if the rights-holder has granted a Creative Commons or other licence. If either the Author or [Journal Name Abbreviation] determines for any reason that permission is required to include any third-party work, the Author will obtain written permission from the rightsholder.
